You May

May is a verb expressing possibility or permission. For example; "that may be true" or "you may have a cookie". Oh I know, it is also the month of May, but I wrote about the month last month so I don't want to write about it this month. (Can you use the word "month" three times in one sentence? Evidently…you may.

Maybe I should get back on topic. I find it fascinating that the same word can express two very different actions. May used to express a possibility has no certainty to it. "We may get rain this month." Now, no matter how much we might need it, the fact is we may not! Even when there is a high probability to the situation; "We may see a large number of people head back to the Midwest this week." There is always the possibility that they will not.

When expressing permission there is a certainty. "You may have another piece of cake." No uncertainty, no possibility of it not happening, I just got permission. When expressing permission, it removes any doubt. If you want the second piece of cake, it is yours for the taking, you have been given permission.

This may seem like a lot to do about nothing, but I do have a point. It is the difference between a person saying; "I may go to heaven when I die" and God saying: "You may come in." In the first instance there is a possibility that you won't make it through the pearly gates and unfortunately some folks think this way. We can get caught in the trap of thinking that if I try hard, if I live my life the best I can, if I give it extra effort, then I may get into heaven. Ah, but how hard is hard enough? How good does one have to be? At one point, have you done something so heinous that you are disqualified?

What the Bible teaches us is that because of Jesus, God says "you may come in". It is a certainty. You can object, although I don't know who would be crazy enough to do that. You could say, but what about this or that in my life? The answer is the same because it is not up to you or about you. It is what has been done for you by Jesus Christ. He lived in your place, took the punishment for all of your wrong doing and made peace with your father in heaven. When God sees you, the gate flings open and He says "you may come in."

"For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 6:23)

Oh, yeah I like permission better than possibility. Now about that second piece of cake…

Pastor Ron

Risen Savior Monthly Financial Review

IRA Holders Over 70 ½ years of age with an Annual Required Minimum Distribution (RMD)

Beginning in 2018, the Federal standard deduction will increase to $24,000. If you previously itemized deductions on your Form 1040, Schedule A and will now be utilizing the increased standard deduction, there are some potential tax savings for those with an IRA who pay an annual RMD.

You may request a one-time distribution from your IRA Authorized Agent for a check to be made out to Risen Savior Lutheran Church for the annual amount of your church donation. The amount of that check is tax-free and will reduce your initial RMD balance.

Example- RMD due: $20,000, tax rate 25%, taxes paid $5000

One time check to Risen Savior for annual contribution: $6000

Remaining RMD due: $14,000, tax rate 25%, taxes due $3500

Tax Savings: $1500

Tax circumstances vary by individual. Please consult your tax professional to determine how this will best benefit you.

If you have a RMD, please contact our Business Manager, Susan Mello at mellos@rslcs.org, for information on how to direct a RMD as a contribution to Risen Savior.

The following is a summary of financial activity for Risen Savior Lutheran Church. If you would like more detailed reports, please contact our Business Manager, Susan Mello at mellos@rslcs.org.

Financial Summary for March 2018:

- Giving Results
  - For March, Giving was under budget by ($1,502) and is over budget $65,443 for FYTD18.
  - Looking forward to April month end, Giving may be under budget by nearly $16,000. However, Giving will still be over budget for the fiscal year to date.
- Spending
  - Spending was over budget in March by $19,998 and under budget ($68,277) FYTD18.
  - Expenses were over budget this month due to a $25,000 accrual to our Ministry Expansion Fund.
- Early Learning Center (ELC)
  - ELC Net Income was over budget by $6,340 for the month of March 2018. For FYTD18, the ELC net income is over budget $41,783.

Financials Continued

- Net Operating Cash is $159,348 which is a positive increase of $11,017 from February 2018. As a reminder, we begin the fiscal year with a Net Operating Cash of zero. We expect Net Operating Cash to be negative until December or March. While there has been excellent control on spending, much of this positive Operating Cash is due to timing of expenses as well as not having a full time DCE. As a comparison to last fiscal year, Net Operating Cash for March 2017 was $103,659.
