

Love Has Won

"This is a song for the hurting
I hope that it helps you to heal
This is a song when the worst of the worst
Is all that you can feel

And this is a song for the lonely
If you've lost someone you can't live without
A song for the souls that are searching
And hearts that are broken down

Sing with me now
Sing with me now

Hallelujah love has won
Hallelujah love has won
God is with us, thank You Jesus
Though the battle rages on
Hallelujah love has won
Yeah

Sometimes it feels like it's hopeless
It's a war just to hang by a thread
Sometimes on this side of heaven
Oh, it just doesn't make sense

And that's why He gave us this family
With a promise that nothing can break
That one day we'll all be together
And the devil can't take that away

Oh, so don't be afraid
He's already conquered the grave
So sing

Hallelujah love has won
Hallelujah love has won
God is with us, thank You Jesus
Though the battle rages on
Hallelujah love has won

Oh, can you hear the angels sing
Death is dead, we're finally free

How sweet the sound
How sweet, how sweet
All creation will bow
And we'll sing

Hallelujah love has won
Hallelujah love has won
God is with us, thank You Jesus
Though the battle rages on
Hallelujah love has won

This is a song for the hurting
I hope that it helps you to heal"
